Three missions books, plus the Articles of Faith StudyMaps (pkg. of 25)

Africa, O Africa* by Chuck and Doris Gailey

A story of incredible resilience and passionate faith in a country not her own, Louise Robinson Chapman's Africa, O Africa is a reminder that God calls and sends people who are willing to say 'Yes' to His will. This updated edition, by Chuck and Doris Gailey, retired missionaries to Africa, brings the reader the voice of Dr. Chapman, and picks up the story since the book was first released in 1945.

Where a Yes Can Take You* by Ramón Sierra and Juan Vázquez Pla

The stories of four Puerto Rican couples whose lives were impacted by missionaries who first came to their shores. See how God chose to use the faithful 'Yes' to extend influence through these families in countries far from the little island of Puerto Rico: to South and Central America, and beyond to the streets of major cities in the United States.

Maps Beyond Geography* by Stéphane Tibi

Maps are about more than finding your way through geographical obstacles and terrains. StudyMaps is a new way of looking at both faith and scripture, and of engaging and strengthening the memory to prompt us to evangelism, discipleship, and maturity.

- U-8218 2018–19 Children's NMI Missions Books (6 Books with Reading Chart) NEW! $38.99
Six missions books plus a reading chart to keep a record of the books each child has read.

All-Reader Books

Flat Brother* by Genelle Cope

Two eight-year-old boys, one from the United States, one from Nicaragua, are introduced through a child sponsorship program. They begin writing each other, and experience God's love through the program's far-reaching impact. This story is fiction based on facts about the child sponsorship program through Nazarene Compassionate Ministries and Feed the Hungry.

High-Flying Strangers* by Lynne Chambers

When members of a small Nazarene church in the US learned about student pilots in their area, they began to pray for a way to reach them. Today a number of student pilots from this Creative Access Area have come to know Christ through the ministry of this local church. This book is based on a true story, but the names have been changed for security reasons.

Night of the VooDoo Invaders* by Lynda T. Boardman

This story takes place in Gros-Morne, Haiti. The main plot focuses on the Zamor family and the persecution they endured from the voodoo community. It demonstrates God's provision and protection for their family. The story also relates the experiences of a youth missions trip to Haiti with a different approach from Work & Witness. They used soccer camps and the JESUS Film as opportunities to share their Christian faith.

Advanced Books

Beware of the Blue-Ringed Octopus* by Tami Brumbaugh

A young boy in Papua New Guinea is bitten by a blue-ringed octopus while spearfishing in the Bismark Sea. Nursing students perform CPR as they rush him to the Nazarene Mission Hospital in Kudjip. Even an intrusion by a machete-wielding man cannot deter God's plan to provide physical and spiritual healing. This story is fiction based on facts about the Nazarene Mission Hospital, the Nazarene College of Nursing, and the Dooley family.

Brookelyn's Dream Comes True* by Cheryl Crouch

This book is based on a true story. Brookelyn and her brothers were part of Southern Nazarene University's Commission to Mexico trip when Brookelyn was 14 years old. They served at a retirement center and ended up starting a new church! Brookelyn loved it so much, she longed to go back to the mission field. God opened her eyes to the opportunity to serve with the Hispanic congregation meeting in her own church building.

The Case of the Missing Cross* by Wes Eby

This book is based on true Nazarene missions work in the Navajo Nation. It includes factual information about some places and the culture of the Navajo people. While information about tentmaker missionaries is true, the Elvin and Yazzie families and the plot about Alfred and the stolen cross have been added and fictionalized to make the story more readable for children.
